

NOVEMBER 20, 2005

RUN FOR GEORGE

Upper School, Englewood Cliffs, was a hub of activity for the Third Annual Run for George to benefit pancreatic cancer research. The run was organized by Stacy, Sophia and Pauline Rubis in memory of their beloved father George.

An auction helped raise additional funds for research.

The Rubis family.

Participants begin the run.

Children played games in the gym during the run.